Soroptimists Ready for Rocktoberfest

Tickets are now on sale for Soroptimist International of Vacaville's popular "Rocktoberfest" fundraiser, with plans to again fill Ulatis Community Center with festive food, fun and music from 5 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 26.

The event will feature a delicious German-themed meal, with beer and wine available for purchase. There will also be a silent auction, a live auction, and a wine pull for $25 where you're guaranteed to get a bottle valued at $50 or more. The School of Rock band of awesome local musicians will perform classic rock tunes.

Tickets are $65 each and will feature Anderson Family Catering and BBQ's roasted pork loin with apple chutney; beer brats with onions and peppers; roasted Yukon potatoes with garlic Dijon vinaigrette; and a mixed green salad with apples and creamy maple dressing.

The dinner and auction proceeds benefit Soroptimists' projects, which include scholarships and awards for women and girls working to make the community a better place, according to Soroptimist Co-Presidents Mary Dickey and Clara Oakes.

The event also supports S-Clubs (Soroptimist service clubs) in local high schools, grants for women who are single head of households, and the Dream Maker program, which works with at-risk women to build confidence and self-esteem.

Sponsorships are available starting at $250. A $1,000 sponsorship includes a table of eight at the event and other benefits. For a complete list of sponsorship opportunities, contact Dawn Shepherd at SoroptimistDawn@gmail.com for details.
